

God loves the birds and the bees

by Silvia Purdie

God loves the birds and the bees
and the spiders and the fleas,
and the mountains and the trees,
and the fish in all the seas.     (repeat)
and what do you know?
God might even love me.
God might even love me.
Yeah, right!     God might even love me.
But probably not.     God might even love me.
How awesome is that! God might even love me.
Don't know about you! God might even love me.
OK!! God loves the birds and the bees ...
