Uncle John When they became young men they worked as ships carpenters, the and moved back with Jackson family.

(2) Archibald went to live with his Jackson Grandparents at age 4., on their farm near at Hamilton Bay. He helped on the farm until his father sent him to Pt Chalmer's District High School. He went every day by horse, and brought the shopping home.

(3 *) These children died on a Sunday morning in Sept 1885 when the their families went by boat to visit their Grandma Margaret. A storm blew up and the boat capsised. 1885 was a tragic year, as first Mary died in childbirth, then Granddad John died, then the boat sank.
