

Hold the world gently

(Words and music by Silvia Purdie)

Hold the world gently,
Touch the earth lightly
Move in the power of God.
Sing the faith strongly,
Speak the truth humbly
Stand in the presence of God.

1. Why do we hope for creation?
Why do we care for its life?
Why do we pray in the brokenness?
For this is the heart of God.
2. We are one drop in the ocean,
We are one sprout on the vine.
We add our weight to the balancing
For we are the friends of God.
3. Let there be rain in the wilderness,
Let there be peace in the storm.
Let there be love in the human heart,
For this is the touch of God.
