

You, O Lord, are our resting place

Written by Silvia Purdie.

Note: This is a contemporary hymn. It was written for the Association of Presbyterian Women.

You, O Lord, are our resting place
You, O Lord, are our growing space
Spirit, come, rest on us
Come renew your world.

1. In the pattern of our land,
Show us how to care for earth and sea.
In the forest, in the city,
Be the Lord of here.
2. In the pattern of our lives
Make the room to breathe your peace in us.
In the rushing, be the purpose,
Be the Lord of now.
3. In the pattern of our homes
May your mercy fall, may wisdom flow.
In the conflict, be the centre,
Be the Lord of love.
4. In the pattern of our days
Shape us as we work and rest and pray.
In our striving be our trusting,
Be the Lord of time.
